Dear Mr. Tuvell:

As you are aware, the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts has received your correspondence. The appropriate office is drafting a response to your inquiry, which will be sent to the mailing you provided. We apologize if this response does not meet your expectation.

Sincerely,
The Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts,

I am hereby resending/repeating the note I sent you a couple of weeks ago. That timespan should have given you time to respond to me. (Not to mention that this whole saga began in January, and I've corresponded with you nearly a dozen times!)

WHY DO YOU REFUSE TO CONTACT ME? I'm writing to officially published email addresses, and they're now bouncing, so you're surely receiving them.

Hello again. Why haven't I received any responses to any of the many emails I've sent to many of you people at AO.USCourts.gov?

After all, you do proactively advertise your email addresses, in official publications (under your control/imprimatur). And the emails I send to you are successfully delivered (insofar as my email client and Internet provider assure me). Surely you're not going to pretend you're not receiving them, are you? So, why don't you answer them?

As you know, what you're doing (refusing to respond to me by email [or even U.S. Mail, to date]) is unethical. ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct 1.0(n), 1.4 (applicable here, because in essence I am a "client" of you U.S. Lawyers).

And please don't pretend you're worried about the security of email. If you were, you'd institute appropriate measures (such as supporting secure/encrypted email, which I use, but I can't use it with you because you don't). But in any event, this case doesn't require email security, and I (as the client) am telling you I don't care about it. <https://www.mycase.com/blog/2017/05/new-aba-ethics-> standard-on-email-communication-with-clients/.

It's also illegal. Obstruction of Justice. https://www.law.cornell.edu/wex/obstruction_of_justice.

What does it take for the American court system to Do Their Job??

Hello. This is a complaint about the AO (specifically, the JCD).

Five weeks ago, on Jan 22 2018, I officially/formally filed a Petition for Review to the AO. That Petition (as amended, as the AO has been notified) is attached hereto, and it is also available on my website, at <http://judicialmisconduct.us/drupal/sites/default/files/2018-01/JConfPetition.pdf>. As stated in the Petition, I filed the Petition simultaneously by all 3 advertised official methods; and, I received the U.S. Mail Certified Return Receipt as proof of delivery, as shown here:

My complaint here is that I have NOT RECEIVED CONFIRMATION OF FILING FROM THE AO ITSELF. That is required.

Please get the AO to send me that receipt. Officially. Promptly.

Thank you.
