On September 27, 2018, in connection with his nomination to become an Associate Justice on the Supreme Court of the United States, Judge Brett Kavanaugh appeared and gave testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee at a hearing related to allegations brought by Dr. Blasey-Ford. His testimony was provided under penalty of perjury. I watched this testimony from my home in Greenwich Connecticut. In his opening statement, Judge Kavanaugh's presented himself as angry, aggressive, entitled, and highly emotional - almost to the point of hysteria. Moreover, throughout his statement, he engaged in highly partisan attacks, demeaning and vilifying the Democrats generally, and the Democratic senators particularly. He spewed conspiracy theories (the allegations from women, brought under penalty of perjury and a great personal risk, were "revenge on behalf of the Clintons") and threatened the Democrats with unspecified retribution

Judge Kavanaugh's testimony was evasive, condescending, and aggressive. When questioned by female Senators he acted like a bully, oftentimes interrupting and improperly posing questions to his interrogator. His conduct - especially towards the women - was appalling, undignified, and far below the decorum, respect and integrity that is to be expected by a sitting judge - especially one who is interviewing for one of the most powerful and long lasting positions in our government.

Finally, it is apparent from even a cursory review of publicly available documents, news reports, sworn statements by witnesses, and Judge Cavanaugh's own prior statements, that the Judge provided willfully false and misleading testimony at this hearing, as well as his prior hearings.

In all, Judge Kavanaugh has clearly and repeatedly demonstrated throughout this entire nomination process that he lacks the temperament impartiality and the character to be elevated to the Supreme Court. I bring this complaint because I believe that such conduct also demonstrated his unsuitability to maintain any judicial position, including his current one as a judge on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit.

I have reviewed the Code of Judicial Conduct that governs the District of Columbia courts (2018 edition). The rules state therein are "binding and enforceable" on all judges in the District of Columbia; Code of Judicial Conduct, page 2 (2018) (Scope). Judges may be disciplined for violating a Rule. Judge Kavanaugh's conduct on September 27, 2018 (as described above and evident in more detail in any recording of the entire proceeding) violates the following rules:

Rule 1.1: "A judge shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety."

Rule 2.3 (B): "A judge shall not, in the performance of judicial duties, by words or conduct, manifest bias or prejudice, or engage in harassment, including not limited to bias, prejudice or harassment based upon... gender...or political affiliation..."

Rule 2.4 (C): "A judge shall not convey or permit others to convey the impression that any person or organization is in a position to influence the judge."

Rule 3.1: "... when engaging in extra judicial activities, a judge shall not:...participate in activities that would appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judges independence, integrity, or impartiality."

Rule 4. (A)(2): "... A judge or judicial candidate shall not:...make speeches on behalf of a political organization."

Rule 4. (A)(6): "... A judge or judicial candidate shall not:...publicly identify himself or herself as a candidate of a political organization."

Rule 4.1 (A)(11): "...a judge or judicial candidate shall not:...knowingly, or with reckless disregard for the truth, make any false or misleading statement."

Sincerely,
