LITIGATION REAL ESTATE TECH LAW BUSINESS

Malaika M. Eaton

Malaika Eaton's practice includes all aspects of civil litigation. Before joining McNaul Ebel in 2008, Ms. Eaton was a senior associate at Heller Ehrman LLP. She also served as a law clerk for the Honorable Thomas G. Nelson of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Ms. Eaton's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, including class actions, insurance coverage, antitrust, and environmental litigation in both federal and state courts. She also has significant experience in appellate litigation in both the civil and the criminal arenas, including interlocutory appeals, expedited appeals, and pro bono representation during post-conviction review. Ms. Eaton has served as lead attorney in a number of trials, each of which resulted in a victory for the client. Ms. Eaton has likewise represented clients in the U.S. Supreme Court and served as lead counsel before the U.S. Court of Appeals, again achieving victories for the client.

Awards and Activities

- Selected as a "Rising Star" in Washington Law & Politics.
- Earned numerous awards for her commitment to pro bono service, including Heller Ehrman's Richard E. Guggenheim Award, given each year to one or more attorneys in recognition of "exceptional commitment" to pro bono work in their legal practice.
- Ms. Eaton currently serves on the Steering Committee for the Puget Sound Chapter of the American Constitution Society for Law and Policy, and on the Board of Directors for Mother Attorneys Mentoring Association of Seattle.
