Re: Brett Kavanaugh

Reporting a Judge of the United States is not an easy thing to do. My mother was a legal secretary for approximately 20 years, so I grew up with a respect for the rule of law and also for all of the people who are involved in maintaining it. When Judge Kavanaugh testified under oath last week, I was appalled. I saw a Judge of the US Appeals Court lash out in anger at everyone in earshot instead of calmly answering questions from U.S. Senators.

I saw him lie about minor and major events. There was no reason to say he had not watched Dr. Ford testify. But he also lied about knowing people, the legal drinking age in Maryland, his behaviour in high school, and his drinking habits. Most of this can be verified by the tapes of the hearing. Several people who had known him in high school and college have come forward and testified to his drinking problems. President Trump also referred to Judge Kavanaugh's problems with alcohol.

In Judge Kavanaugh's opening address, he displayed an alarming partisanship, particularly against President and Secretary Clinton.

As I am writing this, new charges of witness tampering have come to light. Apparently Judge Kavanaugh texted the witnesses regarding the charges of Ms. Ramirez before he supposedly knew about the charges. He testified under oath that he had no knowledge of the charges from Ms. Ramirez until he read it in The New Yorker. His texts predate the article.

Obviously, this is not the behaviour one expects of a Judge of the United States Appeals Court. Lying under oath consists of perjury and is a felony. Citizens of the United States expect and deserve the truth, especially in a hearing under oath for a lifetime appointment to the Supreme Court.

My personal opinion is that he does not deserve to be a judge anywhere.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
