Judge Brett Kavanaugh appeared before the Senate Judiciary committee on Thursday, September 27th, 2018, to answer questions regarding a claim of sexual assault against him in his youth. In his appearance before the committee he appeared extremely partisan, blaming the Democrat political party for the allegations, claiming it was "revenge" orchestrated by "the Clintons." He was belligerent, petulant, and refused to answer questions put to him by several Senators. He obfuscated and refused to cooperate with their questioning of his behavior in the past.

This lack of reasonable temperament and obvious political bias is unnerving and a terrible blight on the reputation of the court.
